Undesirable Behaviors: Warning Process and Zero Tolerance

Lunda Community Center staff strive for safety for all.

If there is a member who needs to be reminded to follow our Code of Behavior, staff will document that interaction.

- If there seems to be a pattern of behavior where that member has been repeatedly addressed regarding his/her behaviors, that member may be asked to leave.
  - If a member is asked to leave, it is a Mandatory 3-Day Suspension and the member, and his/her guardian if they are a minor, need to meet with a Lunda Community Center Director before regaining the privilege of coming to the Lunda Community Center again.
  - After two 3-Day Suspensions, a subsequent suspension will terminate all membership rights.
- Zero Tolerance Behaviors include:
  - Physical Aggression towards others or LCC Staff
  - Aggressive Verbal Display
  - Other unacceptable behaviors as deemed inappropriate by Lunda Community Center Staff
  - Consequences may range from a Mandatory 3-Day Suspension to Permanent Membership Termination to Law Enforcement Involvement
